GOVERNMENT AND GENERAL ORDERS.*

Head Quarters, at Launceston, Port Dalrymple,
Friday, 13th Decr., 1811.

13 Dec.

Parole, Gordon—C. Sign, Success.

His Excellency the Governor and Commander in Chief, intending to embark to-morrow morning at Ten o'Clock on his return to Sydney, cannot depart without thus publicly expressing his gratification at the present State of improvement of this Infant Settlement, and at the pleasing appearance of the toils of the Settlers being amply rewarded by the abundant Crops of the present Harvest. His Excellency exhorts them to persevere in habits of Sobriety, industry, and

I hope ere this you have had arrivals from England with the pleasant news of a termination of hostilities. I am daily looking out for vessels from Port Jackson, and I hope it will not be long before I have your determination respecting this settlement.

War with France.

* * * * *

Soon after the Lady Nelson sails, and I find the public works will be attended to in my absence, it is my intention to examine the river as far as the cataract more minutely, as it is probable I may have overlooked some places which may hereafter be fit for settlers or the purposes of Government, and might prove more convenient at first than going higher up the river; and as we have had no rain to signify for the two last months, where fresh water is found now there can be no doubt of its being permanent.

Further explorations.

The natives are still shy, but are constantly in the neighbourhood both of this place and Western Arm. One man fell in with about sixteen of them yesterday. He had a kangaroo on his back which they wanted, but did not persist in taking it from him, nor were they hostile in any respect.
