Splendid Room Papers.

THE Gentry and Inhabitants of Hobart Town and its vicinity are respectfully invited to an inspection of the splendid, cheap, and varied patterns of ROOM PAPERS, received per the late arrivals by

JOHN PERRY, BATHURST ST.,

Two doors from Messrs. Brown and Douglas'
 Ladies' and Gentlemen's own paper hung at 1s. per piece.

October 25, 1848.

Notice to the Public.

THE cheapest PAPERS ever offered for sale in this colony, can now be had at JOHN PERRY'S, Bathurst-street, two doors from Messrs. Brown and Douglass'. An inspection will prove his variety of patterns to equal any house in Hobart Town.

Paperhanging, Varnishing, Painting, Whiting Ceilings, Decorating, and Ornamental Plastering, executed in the first style. His charges for moderation cannot be competed with by any establishment in the trade.

J. P.'s punctuality and attention to business having placed him in a position to get his articles at first cost from home, and his increasing connection owing to the kind patronage hitherto and still received, enables him to work and sell cheap.

In returning thanks for the favour already shown him, he does it with sincere gratitude, trusting his future dealings may be still deserving of a continuation of the same.

N.B.—Ladies' and gentlemen's own Paper hung in a manner not to be surpassed by any mechanic in the line at 1s. per piece. The trade supplied. Country orders punctually attended to.
